

'Leave home before 30th'

MORE than 40% of people believe the ideal age to buy your first home is between 25 and 29 – despite the national average being 34.

A survey by Royal London found 95% of those interviewed think people should leave their family home before turning 30.

