

Health tops priority list

HEALTH is the top priority for Irish people this year, it has been revealed.

But Royal London said cash worries had increased 9% year-on-year, with almost half of people facing money concerns.

The life insurance firm commissioned a survey of 1,000 people conducted by market researchers iReach.

