

INSTANT TLC TERMS AND CONDITIONS

If you apply to us for a policy that includes life cover and your policy doesn't start right away, we want to make sure you're protected in the meantime.

That's why we offer Instant TLC (Temporary Life Cover). It's temporary life cover that provides peace of mind to you during the application and underwriting process. So, you're protected even before your policy officially starts.

Instant TLC is provided by Royal London Insurance DAC (Royal London). So, where we refer to 'we', 'us' or 'our' in this leaflet, we mean Royal London. To keep things simple, we'll talk about 'you' where we mean the policy owner taking out the policy and the 'person covered' where we are talking about the person you're insuring.

When will my Instant TLC start?

Your Instant TLC starts when your Financial Broker receives confirmation of cover from us in the cover email and in addition will be dependent on:

- the person covered being under age 60
- your application for cover not replacing any existing Royal London or Caledonian Life policies

The Instant TLC details contained in the cover email, and the terms and conditions contained in this leaflet, will apply.

What will I be covered for?

Your Instant TLC will be the amount of life benefit cover you've applied for, up a maximum of €500,000 in total regardless of the number of new business applications received by us.

If your application includes both Life and Specified Serious Illness cover, or is for Multi-Claim Protection Cover, you will only be covered for life cover for the duration of your temporary life cover period stated in the cover email.

How long will Instant TLC last?

Your Instant TLC will end on the earliest of the following dates:

- Your policy commencing.
- Your instruction or your Financial Broker's instruction not to proceed with the application.
- The expiry date stated in the cover email sent to your Financial Broker.

If you provide information to us in your application or if we receive information in addition to the application, which means that we cannot or may not be able to offer you cover, then your Instant TLC will end immediately, and you'll no longer be covered. We'll tell your Financial Broker if this happens.
